This signed statement must be returned to VRSJ office prior to the scheduled publication of the Journal in which the article will be published. The intent of this Agreement is to protect the interests of both VRSJ and authors/employers and to specify reasonable rights for both parties related to publication and reuse of the material.

The undersigned hereby assigns to the Virtual Reality Society of Japan (VRSJ) copyright ownership in the above article, effective if and when the article is accepted for publication by VRSJ and to the extent transferable under applicable national law. This assignment gives VRSJ the right to register copyright to the article in its name as claimant and to publish the article in any print or electronic medium.

Authors, or their employers in the case of works made for hire, retain the following rights:

1. All proprietary rights other than copyright, including patent rights.
2. The right to prepare derivative publications based on the article, including books or book chapters, journal papers, and magazine articles, provided that publication of a derivative work occurs subsequent to the official date of publication by VRSJ.
3. The right to use the material for lecture or classroom purposes.
4. The right to make and distribute copies of the article for internal purposes.

By signing this Agreement, the authors warrant the following terms:

1. The article is original and has not previously been published elsewhere
2. The article does not infringe on any copyright or other rights in any other work and all necessary reproduction permissions, licenses, and clearances have been obtained
3. All substantial contributors are included in the list of the authors
4. If necessary, the agreement with the authorized employer on disclosure of the article is obtained.

WHO SHOULD SIGN This form must be signed by (1) at least one author of the article and (2) the author's authorized employer if the article was prepared within the scope of the author's employment or was commissioned by the employer. If not signed by all authors, the author(s) signing this Agreement represents that he/she is signing this Agreement as authorized agent for and on behalf of all the authors.
